Grounds for Your Challenge in This Petition

State every ground (reason) that supports your claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground. Any legal arguments must be submitted in a separate memorandum.
rate supporting each ground. This regarding must be such more in a separate memorandum.
GROUND ONE: The evidence presented by the government does not establish probable cause to find that the petitioner committed an extraditable offense under the law of Ecuador
(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):
For the reasons set forth in the attached extradition brief (ECF Doc. 21), which petitioner adopts and incorporates by reference herein, petitioner submits that the evidence presented by the government consisted of speculation, weak circumstantial proof, and unreliable hearsay, and was thus insufficient to establish probable cause as to each of the specifications for which the magistrate judge granted a certificate of extraditability.
(b) Did you present Ground One in all appeals that were available to you?
Ø Yes □No
GROUND TWO: Extreme conditions in the Ecuadorian prisons, which have been documented by the State Department, international human rights organizations, news reports, and the government of Ecuador itself, establish that extradition would amount to a death sentence for petitioner and thus warrant an exception to the non-inquiry doctrine under Gallina v. Fraser, 278 F.2d 77 (2d Cir. 1960) and its progeny
(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):
Documented prison conditions in Ecuador show that the prisons are essentially run by violent gangs, that up to 1.5% of inmates are violently killed _each year_, that extreme abuse amounting to torture by both inmates and guards is widespread, and that American citizens such as petitioner Leon are particularly targeted for extortion and violent abuse. This is thus one of the rare cases warranting an exception to the non-inquiry doctrine.
Petitioner further incorporates the facts and arguments set forth in the attached submissions to the magistrate.
(b) Did you present Ground Two in all appeals that were available to you?
Ø Yes □No
GROUND THREE: Petitioner was denied due process in connection with the underlying extradition proceeding
(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):
For the reasons set forth in the attached district court filings, which petitioner adopts and incorporates by reference herein, the petitioner was denied due process by reason of not being allowed to obtain discovery of evidence that would have explained the apparent circumstantial proof adduced by the government. Because such evidence would have explained, rather than contradicted, the government's proof, it would have been admissible and discovery of such evidence should have been allowed.
(b) Did you present Ground Three in all appeals that were available to you?
1 Yes □ No

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.): (b) Did you present Ground Four in all appeals that were available to you?
